

Institute management software installation document:- upload the zip to server extract the zip

now open the software folder go to application/config/config.php change url $config['base_url'] = ""; to your url

save changes

create the database create a user

add user with database allow all privileges now open browser type domain name/project name <http://yoursite.com/institute> provide detail

done

for more watch installation video