

Tam school software PRO version install doc :-

create database

create user.

add user with database.

import .sql file to database.

Download .zip package

Upload it to your server

Extract the package go to application/config/routes.php change default controller 'install' to 'login' go to application/config/database.php change host name... db name... db user.... db password open browser type domain name/project name for more watch installation video